

Romeo and Juliet

Vocabulary

Prologue and Act I Vocab

Prologue (p. 1037)

- dignity
- mutiny
- piteous
- toil

Act I

- wield (p. 1041)
- augmenting (p. 1042)
- transgression (p. 1044)
- heretic (p. 1049)
- ambling (p. 1053)
- knave (p. 1058)
- trifling (p. 1062)
- chaste (p. 1046)
- scorn (p. 1059)

Prologue Vocabulary

All on p. 1037

- Dignity – worthiness, rank, standing
- Mutiny – rebellion against authority, uprising
- Piteous – heartbreaking, pathetic
- Toil – laborious effort, hard work

Act I Vocabulary

- wield (p. 1041) – to handle effectively (especially a weapon)
- augmenting (p. 1042) – increasing, adding to
- transgression (p. 1044) – violation of a law, wrongdoing
- heretic (p. 1049) – one who dissents from a belief (like religion)
- ambling (p. 1053) – walking or strolling leisurely
- knave (p. 1058) – person with low status, scoundrel
- trifling (p. 1062) ²⁸ – of small value, insignificant, unimportant
- chaste (p. 1046) – virtuous, innocent (like a virgin)
- scorn (p. 1059) – to mock, to ridicule, to show contempt

Act II Vocab

- idolatry (p. 1070) – obsession, blind adoration
- beseech (p. 1071) – to beg eagerly for
- rancor (p. 1076) – hatred, bitterness
- commend (p. 1082) – to praise as worthy, recommend
- loathsome (p. 1086) – disgusting, offensive,
revolting