

The Odyssey Unit

Vocabulary Review

adversary

- noun
- enemy, foe

appalled

- adjective
- shocked, horrified

profusion

- noun
- large amount

abominably

- adverb
- terribly, awfully

ponderous

- adjective
- heavy, awkward

travail

- noun
- hard work

assuage

- verb
- to calm, to ease

ardor

- noun
- passion, eagerness

foreboding

- noun
- dread for the future

harried

- adjective
- hassled, bothered

beguiling

- adjective
- charming, enchanting

meditation

- noun
- deep thought

adversities

- noun
- hardship, misfortune

commandeered

- verb
- took control by force

contemptible

- adjective
- deserving scorn, despicable

desolation

- noun
- lonely grief, misery

aloof

- adjective
- distant, remote

implacable

- adjective
- impossible to soothe, unforgiving

restitution

- noun
- repayment, compensation

revelry

- noun
- merrymaking, festivity

revulsion

- noun
- sudden feeling of disgust or loathing

tremulous

- adjective
- trembling, shaking